Scafftag becomes Sponsor of Pride In Barry Youth Ambassador Award

Pride In Barry is delighted to announce that Scafftag Limited has become the sponsor for the Youth Ambassador Award.

The exciting Ambassador scheme aims to create Ambassadors, across a broad range of ages and sectors. Ambassadors are people with a pride in their Town who are prepared to stand up and shout loudly about the strengths, characteristics and opportunities of our wonderful Town of Barry – a great place to live, work and visit.

In announcing the new sponsors, Paul Haley, Chair of Pride In Barry said, “We are delighted that Scafftag has recognised the potential of this Scheme, and has agreed to sponsor the Youth Ambassador Award.”

He added, “This award is presented to those young people less than 25 years old in recognition of the contribution they are making in shaping the future of Barry within their chosen field eg business, sport, arts or culture.”

Dave Mitchell, Managing Director of international Barry-based company Scafftag said, “As a company that specialises in developing solutions for industry, we believe that today’s young people will be our future innovative leaders and Scafftag is pleased to support this Award.”

The presentation night, which will be exclusively reported by the Glamorgan Gem, will take place at 6pm on Tuesday 21st November, at The Oriel Suite, Barry Memorial Hall, Gladstone Road. Nominations are now being sought.
